What counts as a complaint?

A complaint is any contact from, or on behalf of, a customer or potential customer who is not satisfied with any part of our service.

We will not respond to mass lobbying campaigns as it affects the overall service our customers expect from us.

Reviewing your complaint

If you're not satisfied that we've sorted it out, or you're not happy with how we've dealt with things, we'll carry out an internal review of your case. We'll look into how we've handled it and the resolution offered. We will let you know what the outcome of the review is and the reasons for our decision. We will normally take less than two working days to carry out the review. If we agree to carry out other actions following the review we will let you know how long it is likely to take.

If you don't accept the outcome of our internal review, you can contact the Ombudsman. If your complaint is less than eight weeks old, we will send you a 'deadlock letter' explaining what to do.
